REPUBLICANS CARRY CITY AND STATE; LARGE MAJORITIES, TOO

WILLSON SWEEPS KENTUCKY FROM END TO END AND LOUISVILLE REPUDIATES ANCIENT GANG RULE--THE MAJORITIES

Tom B. McGregor Defeated for Legislature From Marshall-Lyon District and Butler From Livingston-Crittenden.

Tom Johnson Wins in Cleveland, and Massac County, Ill., Goes Dry--Results in Other States.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 6.—(Noon).—Latest reports show Willson's majority 12,000. Lassing is surely a winner for railroad commissioner. Beckham says the legislature is surely Democratic. "I am confident of winning and regret the defeat of the state ticket," he said.

Hager carries by reduced majorities: The First, Second, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Tenth districts.

Willson carries: Third, Fifth, Ninth and Eleventh districts.

The Latest.

Louisville, Nov. 6. (2 p. m.)—Indications at this time are that Willson is elected by 20,000, and that all of the ticket will go in with him. The Republicans will have a majority in the lower house of representatives, but the Democrats will have a small majority on joint ballot, which probably assures Beckham has saved his scalp. Carlton, Republican, has defeated McChord for railroad commissioner by a small plurality, giving the Republicans two of the three.

Conn Linn Elected.

Murray, Ky., Nov. 6.—(Special).—Conn Linn was elected senator from the Livingston-Calloway-Trigg-Lyon county district by 360 majority. Hager carries Calloway by 1,244.

McGregor is Defeated.

Benton, Ky., Nov. 6.—(Special).—Official returns elect Smith, Democrat, for representative over Tom McGregor in the Marshall-Lyon district by 51 majority.

Butler Elected.

Smithland, Ky., Nov. 6.—(Special).—Butler, Republican, for legislature, elected in Livingston-Crittenden district.

Calloway County.

Murray, Nov. 5.—Calloway, complete, gives Hager 2,051. Willson 807. The proposition to issue $35,000 bonds to build county court house lost as did proposition to issue bonds for water and light plant by five votes.

Election May Throw Beckham Down. Louisville, Nov. 6.—(Special).—The latest returns from the state show that Willson is elected by a majority of 14,000. Grinstead has 4,500 in the city. Lassing wins. McChord is in doubt, and it looks like he has lost. The house is about evenly divided. The Democrats may have a majority of one or two. The senate shows a majority of Democrats. Beckham's election to the senate apparently is assured, unless an effort is made by defeated Democrats to throw him down.

Taylor Will Return.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—Friends of W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley say they will return to the state for trial. Both have been in exile.

Cincinnati Goes Republican.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—By a decisive vote the people of the city of Cincinnati decided to return to Republican rule. Late returns, that are very slow in being brought to the board of elections, indicate that Col. Leopold Markbreit, the Republican candidate for mayor, has received about 45,000 of the votes cast. The total vote will approximate 80,000. Markbreit's majority over all will be about 5,000.

New York, Nov. 6.—Election results: Tammany elected the county and judicial tickets.

Fort, Republican, is believed to be elected governor of New Jersey.

Guild, Republican, was elected governor of Massachusetts.

Crothers, Democrat, is probably elected governor of Maryland.

Delaware is divided almost equally on the local option.

Higgins, Democrat, was elected governor of Rhode Island.

Nebraska went Republican by 12,000.

Taylor, Democratic good government candidate, was elected mayor of San Francisco, Langdon district attorney.

Tom Johnson won in Cleveland.

The anti-Mormon ticket was elected in Salt Lake.

Brand Whitlock was re-elected mayor of Toledo on the Independent ticket.

Burton's Defeat.

Washington, Nov. 6.—In administration circles the Burton defeat in Cleveland is regarded as a considerable set back to the Taft boom. Burton would have hardly made the race had the president not advised him to.

In Illinois.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—At the first test of the new local option law made in Illinois counties under township organizations, seven counties went unqualifiedly for prohibition and in many former license strongholds, prohibition forces were in a measure victorious. The claim was made at midnight at headquarters of the Anti-Saloon league at Springfield that in sixteen counties voting today 250 saloons had been forced out of business and that 90 per cent of the territory affected had been brought into "dry" territory. At Jacksonville 32 saloons were voted out and at DuQuoin, where a sharp fight was waged, the prohibitionists won by 25 votes. In Southern Illinois counties the mining towns without exception went "dry." The following counties reported in the prohibition column at midnight: Williamson, Union, Hardin, Johnson, Massac, Morgan, Perry, Pope, Pulaski, Scott, Wabash, Calhoun, Cass, (except Beardstown).

Country at Large.

New York, Nov. 6.—Returns from

THE WEATHER.

FAIR.

Fair tonight and Thursday. Not much change in temperature.

HON. A. E. WILLSON, Governor-Elect of Kentucky.

MASSAC COUNTY DRY AND BOND ISSUE DEFEATED

Metropolis, Ill., Nov. 6.—(Special).—Massac county went dry by 800, the issue carrying in every precinct. The bond issue of $35,000, of which $22,000 was to go toward wiping out the floating debt and the remainder for county bridges, was defeated. Mr. Nutty, of New Columbia, defeated A. E. McCammon, of Metropolis, for commissioner, by 500 majority. Both are Republicans. Metropolis went 304 in favor of closing the saloons; Brookport went 101, and Joppa 91. This will close 14 saloons in the county.

HITCHCOCK FOUND

New York, Nov. 6.—Raymond Hitchcock has surrendered to the police.

ANTI-HARRISON CLUB

Mr. George Robertson was one of the happiest men in the city yesterday. "That cold storage organization proved a warm proposition yesterday, didn't it," he said today. "We told you Republicans last spring, after the primary, if you would nominate Jim Smith we would elect him by 250, and we have done it. The Republicans know it, and give them due credit, too."

MAY LOCATE MALONE

Information has been received by Mr. C. L. Dickerson, the liveryman, by which it is believed that Hale Malone, the party who secured a check from him by alleged fraudulent methods and afterwards left a horse standing near the Union station, where he was found in an almost famished condition, will be located. Malone was a collector for the Collier Publishing company.

Grain Market.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Wheat, 99; corn, 63 1/2; oats, 49 1/2.

Democrats Elect Mayor.

Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Sherman Moreland, Republican, for assembly, has been beaten. Eight Democrats out of twelve are elected to the common council. Sheehan, Democrat, is elected mayor. The Democrats elected the district attorney by 700 votes.

Adams Jury Completed.

Rathdrum, Idaho, Nov. 6.—The jury for the trial of Steve Adams, charged with the murder of Fred Tyler, was completed this afternoon.

Trigg County.

Cadiz, Ky., Nov. 6.—(Special).—Trigg county gave a Democratic majority of 60.

A VINDICATION.

Some time ago the News-Democrat declared the Sun was trying to injure Supt. Carnagey by saying he might face a school board next January with only two members, who took part in his election. Look at the list of trustees-elect, and you will find that he will have eight strange faces on the board January 1. That is no reflection, it is a mere incident, and is worthy of repetition only in vindication of The Sun's observation. Prof. Carnagey's election had nothing to do with the present situation.

SUN SHOWS ITSELF PADUCAH'S NEWSPAPER

Again The Sun demonstrated that it is the NEWS paper of Paducah, and again it had the biggest part of the election crowd at its office to receive the returns, and it was such a good natured crowd, everybody happy, and everybody sober. At 6:30 the returns from all the county precincts were in except one, and indicated Graves would come to town with a lead of slightly more than 100, and that looked ominous for the state ticket. At 8:30 the first report on the mayor's race was a straw that indicated Smith was running fine, with plenty of reserve speed. Gallman's report that on the straight ballots Willson and Smith were leading by more than 100 in that precinct, and the wise ones knew what that meant, a Smith and Willson majority in Paducah. Then came the first complete returns, Chaik's reporting. There Harrison fell down 35 from his registration and Smith ran ahead 8, which was but another indication that things were running fine. Then, in quick succession the precincts reported on the mayor's race, and everyone indicated Smith running ahead. Such Democratic precincts as Berry's showing a Democratic defection of 128, Henneberger's 49, Savage's 76, North Side Court House 90. These wards are the homes of the business men, and the wage earners, and indicated that the solid people of the city were with the Republicans and Smith was not to be denied.

Conservative as it has been in its claim through this campaign, The Sun did not claim Smith's election until 10 o'clock, although every indication long before that hour was that he would go in by at least 150. At 10:30, however, The Sun called for Mr. Smith over the phone and congratulated him on his election, and the great, enthusiastic crowd in the office gave him three such rousing cheers as probably no other candidate in Paducah ever received.

Mr. Smith received the returns at his home on Washington street. He

JAMES P. SMITH, Who Will Be Mayor of Paducah for the Next Four Years.

Yoted early and was at the polls working like a trojan all day, but went home early in the afternoon. With a few friends he received the returns as rapidly as they came in last night and at 10:30, when his election seemed a certainty his house was stormed by his admirers eager to congratulate Paducah's first Republican mayor.

NEWS-DEMOCRAT FORECAST COST SPORTS BIG SUM

One of the saddest incidents of the election took place yesterday, afternoon, when a lot of enthusiasts led away by the optimistic tone of the News-Democrat's first edition, began to offer odds of 5 to 1 on Harrison. Fortunately for them, there were few people calm enough at that late hour to consider a bet, and they bluffed the Smith money off the street.

About 4 o'clock the News-Democrat came out with 2 column black headlines like these:

HARRISON'S ELECTION IS ASSURED BY VOTING. Tab Kept on the Balloting Indicates That He Leads the Contest.

AS GOES MAYORALTY SO GOES THE TICKET.

The Democrat already have a yell coming to them and can take it whenever they get ready. It was unique. Nobody ever knew a newspaper before to even hazard a prediction in an edition that appeared on the street just at the hour the count began. But that newspaper calmly proceeded to estimate the majority at 500 and give figures to substantiate its assertion.

A great deal of money changed hands on the mayor's race, and the boys were out early collecting their bets this morning. The Independent Democrats are reported to have cleaned up on the results between four and five thousand dollars. Most of the bets were even money but some Democrats, more enthusiastic than wise, bet odds of two to one. The News-Democrat can be credited by some of the Democrats with the responsibility of leading them astray. After last night's foolish report that all indications pointed to Harrison carrying the city by over 400, some deluded Democrats were keen in their search for money and readily found their money covered. One bet of $150 to $30 on Harrison was made as late as 8 o'clock, and in about 30 minutes that man's pipe went out and he felt himself touched for $150. Of course he is grateful to the News-Democrat.

RS. JANE HUBBARD DIES AS RESULT OF INJURIES.

Mrs. Jane Hubbard, 65 years old, who fell last Friday and broke her leg, died this morning at her home, 414 Norton street. She leaves one son, Samuel Hubbard, of Louisville.

Every Precinct Shows Gains for Smith and There Was No Doubt of Result After Count of Straight Ballots in the Booths.

Prof. George O. McBroom Ran Ahead of Ticket in County But is Defeated by Small Majority.

Smith lead his ticket. His vote was 2,331. Dorian ran second on the Republican ticket, with 2,267. Hank, with 2,168, lead the aldermen. Duval, with 2,122, lead the councilmen.

Beadles with 2,294 lead the Democratic ticket. Sherrill with 2,144 lead the Democratic aldermanic candidates and was elected.

"Don't cheer, boys. Some of those poor devils are dying," said the captain of the Texas after the battle of Santiago harbor.

With the cheers for the victors in yesterday's local fight, are mingled regrets for those, who failed to make the goal.

But 'twas a famous victory.

George Lehnard came so near accomplishing the impossible that Maurice McIntyre didn't retire as usual last night, and Harlan Griffith didn't give up until this morning, while George Andrecht cut the Democratic majority cruelly.

In a vote that fell only $80 below the largest registration in the city of Paducah, the Republican ticket made gains in every precinct, and the way the straight Republican ballots stood up with the registration, in spite of the scratching, indicated that the independents and many of the Democrats were "taking their straight" yesterday.

The result shows that James P. Smith for mayor, John J. Dorian for city treasurer and Arthur Y. Martin for city attorney, went through with flying colors. The Democrats elected Maurice McIntyre city clerk, J. W. Orr city assessor and Sam Beadles city jailer. Eugene Graves managed to pull through for legislature, hanging to the coat tails of the state ticket. Oddly enough, the dry country districts gave him a majority, while Paducah supported Professor McBroom.

Captain Farley Happy. Captain Edwin Farley carried the city by 169 votes, and when seen by The Sun reporter this morning was in an unusually good humor, as could have been expected. "The election is indeed very gratifying to me, and my heart is full of gratitude for the good people of Paducah for the vote given us in the city," he said. "It was a great victory, indeed, and means that the people of Kentucky are tired of the conditions that have obtained and are for a new deal around."

John K. Hendrick Leads. Col. John K. Hendrick carried Paducah by 116, and was the only man on the state ticket who did so. The colonel was in Smithland last night, and today conceded the election of the Republican ticket.

THE MEN WHO WORKED

Mr. E. E. Bell, "Ed Bell," as his friends call him, is receiving more congratulations this morning than any man in the city excepting only Mr. Smith, and rightly so, too, for it was due in very great measure to the tireless energy, the enthusiasm and resourcefulness he displayed at every stage of the campaign that such a big vote was gotten out. He was ably assisted by a great host of enthusiastic workers, both in the Republican and Democratic ranks, and to every one of them is due the gratitude of the successful men for their hard, effective work. Frank Hoover, the genial hardworking secretary of the committee, comes in, too, for a great deal of praise for the work he has done. In charge of the details of the campaign he was ever tireless and always sure of success.

WHO ELECTED SMITH

The News-Democrat insulted the independent Democrats in its latest issue last night by saying that an outpouring of negro votes was responsible for Smith's election. Here is a careful study of just a few of the precincts in the city, admittedly Democratic, where the white people predominate in great numbers, and where the business men and wage earners constitute the chief host:

North Side Court House, which registered 136 more Democrats than Republicans, gave only 42 majority for Harrison.

Savages, which gave the Democrats 328 majority on registration, returned a Smith majority of 49.

Rogers, which registered 136 Democratic majority, gave Harrison only 18.

Berry's, which gave a Democratic

What the Mayor-Elect Has to Say

Mayor-Elect James P. Smith was tired and happy this morning. In his characteristic way he did not forget this election means business, and he makes this statement:

"It is with a feeling of the responsibility of the undertaking more than one of elation that comes over me in the first flush of the victory. I do not regard the election in the light of a personal triumph. I did not seek office for the sake of the office. I accepted the nomination only after I was convinced that some one had to sacrifice his personal interests and inclinations for public duty, and under the circumstances, that one must be me. I realize that at times certain ones are particularly leg, died this morning at her home, 414 Norton street. She leaves one son, Samuel Hubbard, of Louisville. turn. I know to whose support I
